Bus Shelters

- Discussion regarding the walk through with Alan Watson that still needs to be completed. Commissioner Figueroa asked about the status of cleaning graffiti of the non-advertising bus shelters from Dock Street/Train Station to East Main Street. Email list of non-advertising bus shelters to Trans Ad Outdoor and members.
- Discussion of Trans Ad Outdoor putting numbers on all the bus shelters in order to identify each bus shelter, especially the non-advertising bus shelters. Every bus shelter ought to have a sticker with Trans Ad Outdoor phone number on it.
- Discussion on closing out bus shelter requests and members would like to receive an email confirmation that the work has been completed.
- Frank Petise quickly walked the members through the “Fix It” program. All the members need to log into the program. Discussion on trying to see all the bus shelter complaints.
- Discussion on the 7 illuminating bus shelters that were completed. Alan Watson will email the members the address of the location of those bus shelters. The members will then take a look at them.
- Discussion on 154 Broad Street & Greyrock Place (#10) bus shelter (across from Macy’s).
