November 04, 2022

Director of Public Safety, Health &amp; Welfare Mr. Lou DeRubeis	• Public Safety, Health and Welfare's website is being revamped to incorporate a live dashboard for community engagement. The dashboard will allow the public to see what's going on in all disciplines of Public, Safety, Health, and Welfare.
Policies & Procedures Ms. Amy LiVolsi	<ul> <li>Ms. LiVolsi presented the Freedom of Information Act (F.O.I.A.) which was passed in 1975 by Governor Ella Grasso to ensure public access to public records, and public meetings of government bodies in CT. FOIA and its purpose were reviewed. The Focus was on provisions that relate to the Health Commission in regards to meetings.</li> <li>Meetings – Anytime a gathering is held for the purpose of performing the work of your group.</li> <li>A hearing or other proceeding of a public agency must include an Agenda, Notice, and Minutes.</li> <li>Must be open to the Public (electronic or in person).</li> <li>Public exclusion allowed only in limited circumstances.</li> <li>A quorum isn't required to hold a meeting.</li> <li>Meetings fall under the following categories:</li> <li>Regular – those included on the notice filed in the Town Clerk's office on the public agency's calendar. The agenda may be amended from the floor if 2/3 of present members vote.</li> <li>Special – outside the regular calendar schedule. Agenda cannot be changed. Called with less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice.</li> </ul>

	<ul> <li>Emergency – Agenda not required. Only emergency related matters can be discussed. Less than twenty-four (24) hours' notice, and solely for natural disasters, or purpose of public health emergency.</li> </ul>
	• Agenda sufficiency – must reasonably apprise the public of the specific business to be discussed. "New Business" / "Old Business" /" Legal" are not specific matters.
	• Specific confidential information isn't required to be disclosed.
	<ul> <li>Private vs City Email –         <ul> <li>City related business should not be conducted in personal email.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
	- Always use City email. In the event of a FOIA request, City emails are stored in an email server and are easily retrieved. Deletion and/or destruction of emails and other records fall under document retention rules as dictated under the State Librarian in Hartford.
	• Electronic participation was always allowed pre- COVID via conference calls.
	<ul> <li>Exclusions of the general public: <ul> <li>Non meetings – needn't comply with FOIA.</li> </ul> </li> <li> Non meetings include, but are not limited to: <ul> <li>(1)Personnel search committee for executive level employment</li> <li>(2) Social gathering(s)</li> <li>(3) Collective bargaining strategy or negotiations</li> <li>(4) Caucus of members of a single political party</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
