Mayor Martin Seeks Applicants to City Boards and Commissions

STAMFORD, CT – Mayor David Martin announced that he is seeking applications from residents interested in being appointed to one of Stamford's many volunteer boards and commissions. The Mayor's Office, in conjunction with the Martin Transition Team, will be reaching out to residents and sharing information about the boards and commissions and the application process.

Stamford's government relies significantly on volunteers from the community to serve in various capacities. Serving on a local board or commission is an opportunity for residents to become involved and help shape the future of Stamford.

The application is available for download on the Mayor's city web page, MartinTransition.com, and can be acquired by visiting the Office of the Mayor or by calling 203-977-4150. Completed applications should be emailed to boardapplications@stamfordct.gov or mailed to the Office of the Mayor, 888 Washington Blvd, Stamford, CT 06901.

Applications will be evaluated on a rolling basis over the next several weeks. Seats are available for appointment on the following boards and commissions:
